

CHILD POLICY

Speaker Series

A Public Policy Agenda that Supports the Needs of Infants and Toddlers

3 p.m. Friday, February 25

Andrew Young School of Policy Studies

Seventh Floor Seminar Room

14 Marietta Street

Tammy Mann, Ph.D.

ZERO TO THREE, Deputy Director

Dr. Tammy Mann is responsible for supporting activities of ZERO TO THREE's six program areas. These program areas address the needs of key target audiences including multidisciplinary professionals in the infant/family field, parents, and policy makers, many of whom are leaders at national, state, and local levels. Prior to serving as Deputy Director, she directed the Early Head Start National Resource Center, which ZERO TO THREE has operated since 1995 to provide training and technical assistance to support more than 700 Early Head Start programs across the country.

THE ARTHUR M. BLANK
FAMILY FOUNDATION

