

Step by Step: Checklist for Ph.D. in Economics

(forms listed in the checklist are available in the appendices of these Guidelines)

- _____ Have your dissertation committee and readers appointed (committee must be approved before you schedule the proposal defense)
- _____ Develop a dissertation proposal, in consultation with your committee (proposal must be approved within one year of completing coursework)
- _____ Schedule your dissertation proposal defense
(notify the OAA at least two weeks before the planned date)
- _____ Once your proposal is approved, turn in the Record of Proposal Defense
(form returned to OAA by your chair immediately after the defense)
- _____ Complete the Graduation Application and pay the fee
(apply approximately two semesters before your expected graduation)
- _____ Review the graduation audit you receive after applying to graduate
(to ensure you have met all requirements—contact the OAA if questions)
- _____ Complete the Information for Commencement or Graduation Change form
- _____ Prepare your dissertation, in consultation with your committee
(follow the Guidelines and the style manual you selected)
- _____ Schedule your final oral examination
(remember to review deadline dates)
- _____ Have the Acceptance Sheet and Final Oral Pass sheet signed at final oral (forms returned to OAA by your chair after dissertation is approved)
- _____ Have your dissertation reviewed by the OAA at the time of the final oral
- _____ Make any corrections required by your committee or the OAA
- _____ Upload your ETD to the Electronic Database for review and final approval
- _____ Take the Survey of Earned Doctorates
(survey must be returned to the OAA before graduation)