

Fields	Current Field Requirements	Field Faculty
Each MA-Economics and MA-Economics Policy Track student must complete a minimum of two courses (six hours) in one of the following areas:
Environmental, Urban and Regional Economics (EURE)	ECON 8300 - Urban Economics ECON 8320 - Environmental & Natural Resources and Theory Other Related course with approval from the Director of the Masters' Program.	EURE: Banzhaf, Spencer Ferraro, Paul Mangum, Kyle Patrick, Carlianne
Experimental Economics	ECON 8300 - Urban Economics ECON 8320 - Environmental & Natural Resources Economics and Theory Other Related course with approval from the Director of the Masters' Program.	Experimental: Cox, Jim Laury, Susan Price, Michael Sadiraj, Vjollca Swarthout, Todd
International Economics	ECON 8470 - International Public Economics ECON 8600 - Economics of Development ECON 8850 - International Trade ECON 8860 - Economics of Global Finance Other Related course with approval from the Director of the Masters' Program.	International: Feltenstein, Andrew Martinez, Jorge Rider, Mark Rioja, Felix Wallace, Sally
Labor Economics	ECON 8220 - Human Resources nad Labor Markets ECON 8210 - Health Economics and Policy ECON 8899 - Causal Infernce and Evidence Based Policy ECON 8310 - Economics of Education and Policy Other Related course with approval from the Director of the Masters' Program.	Labor: Hirsch, Barry Tekin, Erdal
Public Finance	ECON 8080- Economics of Public Sector ECON 8460 - Economics of the State and Local Public Sector ECON 8470 - International Public Economics Other Related course with approval from the Director of the Masters' Program.	Public: Feltenstein, Andrew Martinez, Jorge Rider, Mark Sjoquist, David Wallace, Sally
Program Evaluation	ECON 8899 - Causal Infernce and Evidence Based Policy PMAP 8521 - Evaulation Research ECON 8310 - Economics of Education and Policy Other Related course with approval from the Director of the Masters' Program.	Program Evaluation: Ferraro, Paul Price, Michael Sass, Tim Tchernis, Rusty