How to Apply for the Joint Ph.D. program in Public Policy

Thank you for your interest in the joint doctoral program in Public Policy with Georgia State University's Andrew Young School of Policy Studies and Georgia Institute of Technology's School of Public Policy. The application process for the joint program requires applicants to submit applications and supporting documents to both institutions. The $50 non-refundable application fee includes the submission of both applications. You should complete the following steps:

1. Submit Georgia Tech application.
2. Submit $50 non-refundable application through the Georgia Tech Applyweb application.
3. Complete this online form to receive a waiver code so you will not incur additional fees.
4. Submit Georgia State application
5. Submit transcripts, test scores, and other application materials to Georgia Tech and Georgia State University (GSU).

Below are detailed instructions to submit an application to the joint program. If you have any questions regarding the process, please do not hesitate to contact us. You can contact us by email at GradAYS@gsu.edu or by phone at 404-413-0021.

1. Complete and submit your Georgia Tech application at the following link (<https://www.applyweb.com/apply/gatecgsu/>)

2. Complete this online form to obtain a code for your GSU application fee: <https://aysps.wufoo.com/forms/phd-in-public-policy-joint-program-with-ga-tech/>
3. Complete and submit your GSU application at the following link (https://app.applyyourself.com/AYApplicantLogin/fl_ApplicantConnectLogin.asp?id=casgsu).
 - a. Apply your application fee waiver in the “AYS Supplemental Form” section.
 - i. Enter the waiver code when asked “have you received an application fee waiver code.” The code is case sensitive.
4. Copies of transcripts can be uploaded within your GSU application. Transcripts and test scores have to be submitted to both the Andrew Young School of Policy Studies and to Georgia Institute of Technology.
